This Month's Presentation!

"The History of Money"

By Jack Weatherford

This month I am pleased to announce that our guest speaker is none other than Jack Weatherford, author of the critically acclaimed 'The History of Money'. The subject will be a brief overview of his book, particularly focusing on how money has changed society and culture - from the very first coins through cyber space. Jack will also bring about five copies of his book to be sold at the discounted price of $20, with an autograph included at no charge. See you there!

NOTES FROM THE SECRETARY

Not much to say, except I wouldn't miss this meeting if I were you!

FYI : Ken Hollister has reported that he will have over 400 new ancients at the next Holiday show - get there early for the good stuff.

Once again - if anybody has a fax machine please let me know - I can fax to you direct (and my son won't have to lick so many stamps!).
