Colonia Ulpia Traiana: A Roman Colony in Germany

In AD 100, the Roman emperor Trajan established a fort near modern-day Xanten, Germany, northwest of Dusseldorf. The fort soon became a Roman colony from which the Romans conquered the territory east of the Rhine.

Join us at our next meeting, Thursday, November 16th to hear Ted Molitor present a brief talk about his recent trip to this historic Roman site.

Upcoming Coin Shows

About Our Club

The Twin Cities Ancient Coin Club is devoted to the study of ancient and medieval coinage and culture. Our monthly programs focus on coins, history, archaeology, and ancient art.

The club meets once a month at Immanual Lutheran Church, 104 South Snelling (corner of Snelling and Goodrich) in St. Paul. We're usually in the basement meeting room. Look for a sign inside the door. Meetings begin at 7:30 PM.

An auction is held at each meeting. Members are encouraged to bring coins and books to sell. There is no fee charged—all proceeds go to the owner of the item. Items may also be auctioned with proceeds donated to the club treasury if you wish.

Annual dues are $5.00, payable each January. This covers the cost of the newsletter. In addition, members are asked to donate $1.00 to "The Cup" at each meeting to cover the cost of renting the room.

Please join us. Visitors are always welcome. Bring a friend. And bring some coins to "show and tell."

Do you have items that should appear in the next newsletter? If so, call club secretary Bill Daehn at 425-3988.
