TWIN CITIES ANCIENT COIN CLUB MEETING NOTICE

FOR THURSDAY, September 27, 2007 Vol. 47, Number 9

PRESENTATION: "A Closer look at the Byzantine Mint in Alexandria" by Jorg Lueke
The Byzantines resumed minting in Alexandria around 518 AD shortly after the coinage reformation of Anastasius. The continued minting until the final Arab conquest of the city in 646 AD. This period witnessed occupation by the Persians as well as the issue of an odd denomination of 33 nummi. In fact the whole regular series of Alexandria had a different set of denominations than the rest of the empire. Come on Thursday the 27th to find out why.

NOTICES: TCACC president Jorg Lueke Wins ANA exhibit award
Jorg Lueke was awarded the Third Place prize in the Class 7: Coins Issued Prior to A.D. 1500 exhibit classification at the recent American Numismatic Association convention held in Milwaukee. Jorg's winning exhibit was titled "The Last Fifty Years of Alexandrian Bronze Coinage." The annual ANA convention brings out the world's best numismatic exhibitors, and any prize winner should be proud of his or her accomplishment. Way to go, Jorg!
