twin city ancient coin club MEETING NOTICE
for Thursday, may 25, 2006 volume 46, number 5

PRESENTATION:

FROM THE PAX AUGUSTA TO THE PAX ROMANA: Art Noot will provide a brief overview of the life of Gaius Julius Octavius and his living impact upon the Roman world (pax augusta) followed by a view of that world after his death (pax romana), keeping foremost in mind Plutarch's complaint that: "...it is so hard to find out the truth of former times, and even contemporaneous writers disguise and twist the truth out of malice or flattery ..."
You may want to read the Res Gestae Divi Augusti (in English!), the most famous inscription left us by antiquity. It gives us what Augustus wished to have regarded as the leading glories of his reign – distorting and suppressing some facts, but adding much to our knowledge of other facts. (Ref: http://www.fordham.edu/HALSALL/ancient/14resgestae.html)
