Twin Cities Ancient Coin Club

VOLUME 37, NUMBER 2 February 1997

This Month's Presentation!

"Untitled (or Lookin' for the Dough)"

By Jon Buck

Our own resident 'bloodhound' will tell us about his latest field trip. Jon was recently in Romania helping to locate ancient Roman archeological sites. Along with the many interesting artifacts found, their group also uncovered a nearly complete Dacian war chariot. If you were at Jon's last exciting presentation, you know that this one should be a show stopper!

JOIN THE CLUB!

The Twin Cities Ancient Coin Club meets on the fourth Thursday of the month at 7:30 PM. in Immanual Lutheran Church at 104 Snelling Ave. , one block south of Grand Ave. in St. Paul (use the back door, off the alley, usually in the basement). Attendees are encouraged to bring items for sale or auction. Snacks and coffee are provided. Members are asked for a $1.00 donation to cover room rent, and annual dues are a mere $5.00 payable each January. Guests and the curious are exempt from any fees until such time they have become 'hooked' on the club! Call Secretary John Haer at 452-3313 for more information.

NOTES FROM THE SECRETARY

Not much to say this time. However in the interest of expediting the delivery of this newsletter I was hoping that anybody with a fax machine would give me their numbers. This way you'll get a copy without waiting for the postman to ring twice. See your secretary John Haer at the next meeting. Expect Allan Davisson next month on the cleaning and care of ancient coins. Personal to Jon Buck : sorry about the ridiculous title, but you were out of town and no one could stop me!
