MEETING NOTICE > THURSDAY, May 23, 2002 <

SUBJECT : ANCIENT COINS AS ART OBJECTS. Elwood Rafn will discuss ancient coin collecting as the least expensive way to collect ancient art . In addition, he will note that throughout history there has been periodic revival of interest in ancient coins and the art of the celator, sometimes resulting in copies of that art form. Examples, such as Paduans, will be exhibited. Please be sure to join us for this important discussion. Members are invited to bring their own examples.
